Cake pan lending guidelines

- The lending period for cake pans is one week, with three renewals.
- Late fee is $.25 per day with a maximum of $5.00
- Cake pans must be returned to a staff member at the Circulation Desk and will be examined to make sure they are clean and in good condition. Cake pans can not be returned in the library book drop. Please return all materials included with the pan (instructions, bag, etc.)
- Please do not use metal utensils or regular cooking spray on surface of pans.
- Please hand wash the cake pan thoroughly in warm soapy water and dry it thoroughly before and after you use it. Please always hand wash. Dishwashers can damage the pans.
- The Mount Laurel Library is not responsible for any allergic reactions caused by the use of these pans.
- The replacement cost for a lost or damaged pan will be based upon the price of a new replacement pan plus a $5.00 processing fee.
- Returning a dirty pan will incur a $5.00 cleaning fee. Please check pans carefully for cleanliness before you return them.

Share your creation

Have you made a great cake? We'd love a photo to share on our Facebook or Instagram! Send your submissions to the reference desk at refdesk@mountlaurellibrary.org or tag us on Facebook or Instagram @mountlaurellibrary.

Donations

We accept donations of cake pans that meet the following criteria:

- Metal (not silicone)
- In excellent condition

Library staff will make final determination on addition of donated pans based on prediction of popularity/use and availability of space.
